Event, Race and Parade Ordinance

1.01 PURPOSE

The governing body of the Town of Medina recognizes that the highways of the Town are primarily for the use of the traveling public in the ordinary way. However, it further recognizes that there is a fundamental and constitutional right to use the public streets for races, parades and processions that do not close or interfere with the public's right to travel on such highways. This ordinance is intended to regulate and control marathons, bicycle and other races, parades, processions or any other occasion or event that increases public travel on highways for a limited timeframe for the purpose of protecting the general welfare and safety of the persons using the highways of the Town of Medina, Dane County, Wisconsin.
